Empowering Volunteers

A Conference for Community
Volunteers and Leaders

Saturday, June 9, 2012

Border Community SERVICE
of Niagara University

About The Conference

On Saturday, June 9th, Border Community SERVICE will host a FREE conference for CERT volunteers and community leaders on the Niagara University campus.

The conference is honored to have Mark Kreyer, Protective Security Advisor for the Buffalo, New York District, as our keynote speaker presenting on DHS If You See Something, Say Something. As a PSA, Mr. Kreyer serves as a liaison between DHS and the Critical Infrastructure and Key Resources protection community at the State, local, and private sector levels. Mr. Kreyer is a Distinguished Military Graduate of Niagara University.

Participants of the conference will choose from workshops relevant to topics in emergency preparedness and response for both the morning and afternoon sessions.

A free continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Additional conference information as well as online registration are available on the "Conference" page of the Border Community SERVICE website (www.niagara.edu/bordercommunityservice).

Directions

Take the I-190 North to Exit 24 (Witmer Road). Turn left onto Witmer Road (Route 31). At first traffic light, turn right onto the Power Authority Road (Niagara University Witmer Road Entrance). Take second right onto campus (Niagara University-Dwyer Entrance). At stop sign turn right on University Drive and parking for O'Shea/Timon lot will be on the left, next to the O'Shea Residence Hall and the basketball court.
